Welcome to God's House

As the season of Easter closes today, we focus on Jesus' High Priestly prayer. He was praying for his disciples both then and now, which makes it especially appropriate for today as we celebrate Confirmation Sunday.

The word "confirmation" means "strengthening."

The young people who are confirmed today have been strengthened by God's Word for the past two years. Now we gather to publicly witness that strengthening, which will help them as they walk with Jesus through their lives. May the Lord continue to bless and strengthen each of them as they serve him with their lives.

ORDER OF SERVICE

Because this is a worship service, we ask that you would refrain from taking pictures during the service. There will be time afterward the service for pictures.

Opening Hymn

Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus #704

Let us ever walk with Jesus, follow his example pure, flee the world which would deceive us and to sin our souls allure.
Ever in his footsteps treading, body here, yet soul above, full of faith and hope and love, let us do the Father's bidding.
Faithful Lord, abide with me; Savior, lead; I follow thee.

Let us suffer here with Jesus, to his image e'er conform; heaven's glory soon will please us, sunshine follow on the storm.
Though we sow in tears of sorrow, we shall reap in heav'nly joy, and the fears that now annoy shall be laughter on the morrow.
Christ, I suffer here with thee; there, O share thy joy with me.

Let us also die with Jesus; his death from the second death, from our soul's destruction, frees us, quickens us with life's glad breath.
Let us mortify, while living, flesh and blood and die to sin, and the grave that shuts us in shall but prove the gate to heaven.
Jesus, here I die to thee, there to live eternally.

Let us gladly live with Jesus; since he's risen from the dead, death and grave must soon release us. Jesus, thou art now our head.
We are truly thine own members, where thou livest, there live we;
take and own us constantly, faithful Friend, as thy dear brethren.
Jesus, here I live to thee, also there eternally.

Invocation and Opening Dialogue

In the name of the Father and of the (+) Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed!

Come, let us sing for joy to the Lord; let us shout aloud to the rock of our salvation!

We will rejoice in the Lord, we will be joyful in God our Savior. We have no greater joy than to know that our children are walking in the truth.

You are all children of God through faith in Christ Jesus, for all of you who Were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

If we hold to His teaching, we are really his disciples. Then we will know the truth, and the truth will set us free.

Yet, your enemy the devil prowls like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. So, if you think you are standing firm, be careful you don't fall. If the Lord had not been on our side when men attacked us, they would have swallowed us alive.

Let us fix our eyes on Jesus and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us.

We will hold unswervingly to the faith we profess, for He who has promised is faithful.

From infancy you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

God's Word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. I have taken an oath and confirmed it. My heart is set on keeping your word to the very end.

Response

God's Word Is Our Great Heritage #640

♪ God's Word is our great heritage and shall be ours forever;
To spread its light from age to age shall be our chief endeavor.
Through life it guides our way; in death it is our stay.
Lord, grant, while worlds endure, we keep its teachings pure Throughout all generations.

THE WORD

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray.

Lord God, heavenly Father, we thank and praise you for your great goodness in bringing us to the knowledge of your Son, Jesus Christ, and in giving us both hearts to believe and mouths to confess his saving name. Move us to bring forth the fruits of faith and to continue steadfast and victorious until the day comes when all who have fought the good fight of faith shall receive the crown of righteousness, through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

First Reading

Acts 6:1-9,7:2a, 51-60

In those days when the number of disciples was increasing, the Hellenistic Jews among them complained against the Hebraic Jews because their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution of food. ² So the Twelve gathered all the disciples together and said, "It would not be right for us to neglect the ministry of the word of God in order to wait on tables. ³ Brothers and sisters, choose seven men from among you who are known to be full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will turn this responsibility over to them ⁴ and will give our attention to prayer and the ministry of the word."

⁵ This proposal pleased the whole group. They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit; also Philip, Procorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas from Antioch, a convert to Judaism. ⁶ They presented these men to the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

⁷ So the word of God spread. The number of disciples in Jerusalem increased rapidly, and a large number of priests became obedient to the faith.

² To this he replied: "Brothers and fathers, listen to me! The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham while he was still in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Harran...

⁵¹ "You stiff-necked people! Your hearts and ears are still uncircumcised. You are just like your ancestors: You always resist the Holy Spirit! ⁵² Was there ever a prophet your ancestors did not persecute? They even killed those who predicted the coming of the Righteous One. And now you have betrayed and murdered him— ⁵³ you who have received the law that was given through angels but have not obeyed it."

...⁵⁴ When the members of the Sanhedrin heard this, they were furious and gnashed their teeth at him. ⁵⁵ But Stephen, full of the Holy Spirit, looked up to heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. ⁵⁶ "Look," he said, "I see heaven open and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God."

⁵⁷ At this they covered their ears and, yelling at the top of their voices, they all rushed at him, ⁵⁸ dragged him out of the city and began to stone him. Meanwhile, the witnesses laid their coats at the feet of a young man named Saul.

⁵⁹ While they were stoning him, Stephen prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." ⁶⁰ Then he fell on his knees and cried out, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them.” When he had said this, he fell asleep.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading

1 John 5:1-6

Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and everyone who loves the father loves his child as well. ²This is how we know that we love the children of God: by loving God and carrying out his commands. ³In fact, this is love for God: to keep his commands. And his commands are not burdensome, ⁴for everyone born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world, even our faith. ⁵Who is it that overcomes the world? Only the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God.

⁶This is the one who came by water and blood—Jesus Christ. He did not come by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 14:18

Alleluia. I will not leave you as orphans;
I will come to you. Alleluia.

Gospel

John 17:11b-19

¹¹ I will remain in the world no longer, but they are still in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them by the power of your name, the name you gave me, so that they may be one as we are one. ¹² While I was with them, I protected them and kept them safe by that name you gave me. None has been lost except the one doomed to destruction so that Scripture would be fulfilled.

¹³ "I am coming to you now, but I say these things while I am still in the world, so that they may have the full measure of my joy within them. ¹⁴ I have given them your word and the world has hated them, for they are not of the world any more than I am of the world. ¹⁵ My prayer is not that you take them out of the world but that you protect them from the evil one. ¹⁶ They are not of the world, even as I am not of it. ¹⁷ Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth. ¹⁸ As you sent me into the world, I have sent them into the world. ¹⁹ For them I sanctify myself, that they too may be truly sanctified.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to you, O Christ!

Hymn

Jesus, Christ, My Sure Defense #446:1-4

Jesus Christ, my sure defense and my Savior, now is living!
Knowing this, my confidence rests upon the hope he's giving, though the night of death be fraught still with many'—an anxious thought.

Jesus, my Redeemer, lives; I, too, unto life shall waken.
Endless joy my Savior gives; shall my courage then be shaken?
Shall I fear, or could the head rise and leave his members dead?

No, too closely am I bound unto him by hope forever;
faith's strong hand the rock has found, grasped it, and will leave it never.
Even death now cannot part from its Lord the trusting heart.

I am flesh and must return unto dust, whence I am taken;
but by faith I now discern that from death I shall awaken with my Savior to abide in his glory, at his side.

Offering

The members of Zion have joined together to do the Lord's work in this community and around the world. If you are a visitor, please don't feel obligated to participate in this offering which supports our ministry.

Rite of Confirmation

The pastor speaks to those being confirmed:

My dear young friends, when you were baptized, your gracious Lord forgave all your sins and covered you with the robe of Christ's righteousness. Through water and Word he created faith in your hearts and adopted you into the family of believers. As you matured and heard and studied the Scriptures, the Holy Spirit enlightened your minds and preserved you as children of God.

You have expressed the desire to confess the truths you believe before your Savior, your family and friends, and this congregation. You are ready to say with St. Paul, "I believed; therefore I have spoken." You have learned to examine your thoughts, words, and actions in the light of God's law, and you have experienced the comfort of forgiveness in the Savior's gospel. With this preparation you are eager to receive the Savior's body and blood in the sacrament.

As we worship with you on this day, we are filled with joy as we see how the Lord has grown your faith and love. We are bringing our prayers to the Savior's throne of grace and imploring him to keep you faithful to him and his Word until you join us and all believers in the glories of heaven.

I now ask each of you:

Are you ready and willing to confess your faith before the triune God and those who are worshiping with you today? If so, join with the congregation now to confess your faith in the words of the Apostles' Creed:

(all) I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Do you reject the devil along with all his lies and empty promises?

I do reject him.

Do you believe that all the books of the Bible are the inspired and inerrant Word of God?

I do.

Do you believe that the teachings of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, as you have learned to know them from Luther's Small Catechism, are faithful and true to the Word of God?

I do.

Is it your sincere prayer and desire to remain faithful to your Lord Jesus and his Word all the days of your life?

Yes, and I ask God to help me.

Is it your sincere prayer and desire to live a life that pleases God, to value his Word and sacraments, and to witness to your Savior wherever you go?

Yes, and I ask God to help me.

The pastor speaks to the congregation:

Dear friends in Christ, the Word of God urges us to pray for one another and especially for the youth of the church. On this special day, it is fitting that we bring our prayers before God, firmly believing that he alone is able to strengthen us by the power of the Holy Spirit and keep us faithful to the Savior until we die. Let us pray.

Gracious Father, in Holy Baptism you created faith in the hearts of these young people and gave them a new birth as members of your family. Help them remember their baptisms every day and find comfort in your promise that you will never leave them or forsake them.

Give them strength to put down and drown the sinful nature that lives within them so that each day their faith may triumph in their living and loving and in their words and actions.

Lead them to see and believe that in the word of the gospel they find forgiveness for their sins and relief for their guilt. Use the remembrance of your commandments to drive them to the comfort of the gospel and then to guide them as they live for you and others.

Protect them from Satan when he tempts them to be careless with your Word and sacrament, to make plans for this life and not for the life to come, or to find popular theories more appealing than your truth.

Empower them by the gospel of your Son to live in their world with kindness, humility, and patience that others may see their good works and glorify their Father in heaven.

Help us provide fitting examples of faithfulness to your Word and sacraments. Lead us to encourage and admonish them in wisdom and love even after they have left our homes and made new homes for themselves.

When the end comes and we all stand before the judgment seat of Christ, have compassion on us despite our sins and accept us as eternal dwellers in your royal rooms, through the merits of Jesus our Savior, who became sin for us so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. Amen.

The pastor speaks to those being confirmed:

I now invite each of you to come forward to receive a blessing from the Lord and a word of encouragement from the Scriptures.

Those being confirmed may approach the altar in turn and may kneel.

“Hosanna in the highest!” our grateful hearts proclaim.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Lord God, you are worthy to receive thanks and praise from all people. You created the world and all who live in it, and in your mercy you saved us. We give thanks to you for the grace of your Son, Jesus Christ.

Though in very nature God, he took the nature of a servant and became obedient to death, even death on a cross. He offered himself as a sacrifice for sin and redeemed us from its curse and penalty. He rescued us from the terrors of death and restored eternal life with you. He conquered our enemies and gained for us the kingdom of grace and glory.

Bless us as we receive your Son's body and blood, and lead us to remember his suffering, death, and resurrection. Forgive our sins and fill us with the hope of new life in heaven. Hear our praise and receive our thanks as we worship you—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Words of Institution

Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

Jesus, Priceless Treasure #823

Jesus, priceless treasure, fount of purest pleasure, truest friend to me.

Ah, how long in anguish shall my spirit languish, yearning, Lord, for thee?

Thou art mine, O Lamb divine!

I will suffer naught to hide thee; naught I ask beside thee.

In thine arms I rest me;

foes who would oppress me cannot reach me here.

Though the earth be shaking, ev'ry heart be quaking,

Jesus calms my fear.

Lightnings flash and thunders crash;

yet, though sin and hell assail me, Jesus will not fail me.

Satan, I defy thee;

death, I now decry thee; fear, I bid thee cease.

World, thou shalt not harm me nor thy threats alarm me while I sing of peace.

God's great pow'r guards ev'ry hour;

earth and all its depths adore him, silent bow before him.

Hence, all earthly treasure!

Jesus is my pleasure, Jesus is my choice.

Hence, all empty glory! Naught to me thy story told with tempting voice.

Pain or loss or shame or cross shall not from my Savior move me since he deigns to love me.

Hence, all fear and sadness!

For the Lord of gladness, Jesus, enters in.

Those who love the Father, though the storms may gather,
still have peace within.

Yea, whate'er I here must bear, thou art still my purest pleasure, Jesus, priceless treasure!

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;

his mercy endures forever.

Whenever we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

We give thanks, almighty God, that you have refreshed us with this saving gift. We pray that through it you will strengthen our faith in you and increase our love for one another.

Lord God, heavenly Father, we thank and praise you for your great goodness in bringing these young people to the knowledge of your Son, Jesus Christ, and in giving them both hearts to believe and mouths to confess his saving name. Closing Hymn

Day By Day #803

Day by day, your mercies, Lord, attend me, bringing comfort to my anxious soul.

Day by day, the blessings, Lord, you send me draw me nearer to my heav'nly goal.

Love divine, beyond all mortal measure, brings to naught the burdens of my quest;

Savior, lead me to the home I treasure,
where at last I'll find eternal rest.

Day by day, I know you will provide me strength to serve and wisdom to obey;

I will seek your loving will to guide me o'er the paths I struggle day by day.

I will fear no evil of the morrow,
I will trust in your enduring grace.

Savior, help me bear life's pain and sorrow till in glory I behold your face.

Oh, what joy to know that you are near me when my burdens grow too great to bear;
oh, what joy to know that you will hear me when I come, O Lord, to you in prayer.

Day by day, no matter what betide me,
you will hold me ever in your hand.
Savior, with your presence here to guide me,
I will reach at last the promised land.

Lord's Supper As a church concerned with upholding all the truths of Scripture and encouraging faithful Christian living, we practice "member communion" with those who have confessed a unity of faith with us. If you are not a WELS or ELS member and you would like to commune with us in the future, please speak to the pastor after the service.

Confirmation Today is a special day for the members of our congregation, for relatives and friends, for parents of our confirmands and especially for our five confirmands. We pray that the Lord would always keep them strong in the faith they confess this day and we welcome them to the Lord's Table as worthy communicants who are able to examine themselves. As we share in the joy of these young Christians, may it serve to remind us of the promise we made to our Savior and of his gracious promise to us: "Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life."

We thank our organist this morning, Barb Olsen.

The flowers on the altar this morning are placed to God's glory by the parents of the confirmation class.

Bible Study Have you ever thought about your funeral? We're taking today (Sunday) off because of Confirmation, but next Sunday we'll be finishing up the account of Jesus Raising Lazarus from the dead and applying it by looking at what goes into the planning of a Christian funeral. Join us at 8:45 a.m. in the fellowship hall.

VBS Save the Dates Vacation Bible School is scheduled for August 5th – 8th, from 9 a.m. – 12 p.m. each day. A planning meeting has been set for June 2nd at 6 p.m. at church. We have a team of leaders but could use a lot more help. Anyone interested in helping is encouraged to attend. Thank you!

Perennial Exchange Save the date – May 18th - for our second perennial exchange at church. Are you looking for some new plants in your flower garden? Dig up (or separate) some of your plants, then bring them to church on the 18th where you'll be able to exchange them for something fresh and new, while giving others the opportunity to do the same. Food, fellowship, and flowers....join us at 9 a.m. May 18th!

Sunday School Singing The Sunday School 3rd-8th graders will be singing next Sunday, May 19th, and are in the process of learning their song. Parents, please help them by playing the following video for them:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rYAZe8JoV6M>

Lighthouse Ministry Sign up to provide some of the food needed when we serve at Lighthouse Youth Ministry this Friday. The signup sheet is on the bulletin board.

Church Cleaning This summer again we are seeking members who are willing to clean the church for the months of June - September. During the summer our facilities are not used as extensively as during the school year so it doesn't take as much time, but it still needs to be done. There is a bright pink signup on the bulletin board.

Please pick up the new calendar and church newsletter for May, along with the new Forward in Christ. You'll find them on the cabinets in the entryway.

Memorial Day Observance Our annual Memorial Day Observance will be held on May 26th after the late service – about 10:15 a.m. in the cemetery. The Allenton Legion will be here to help us honor U.S. Armed Forces members who have died serving our country.

Volunteer Opportunities We could use your help at church with greeters and cleaners this summer. Sign up to serve as a greeter online at www.zionallenton.org or sign up for cleaning on the green sheet on the bulletin board.

Upcoming Concerts at KML You are invited to attend the upcoming band and choir concerts at Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School (All concerts are available live at kmlhs.org/stream for those unable to attend in person).

- Percussion Concert: Saturday, May 11, 6:30 PM
- Spring Concert: Saturday, May 18, 6:30 PM
